

We need to talk....

Saturday 8th April 2017, 9:30am-5pm

Facilitator: Della Goswell

This workshop is based on your feedback and identified PD needs from the 2016 survey 'A week in the life of an SA interpreter'. It is designed for qualified interpreters (Deaf & hearing) who work in teams in the community.

What does working as an effective team mean?

How can I support my co-interpreter?

What framework can we use for debriefing on our work as a team?

How do I give feedback?

What does professional behaviour look like?

How do I ask for feedback?

What framework can I use for reflecting on my work?

How do I manage role boundaries?

The workshop will be conducted in Auslan

Venue: Mitchell Park Neighbourhood Centre
1 Cumbria Court, Mitchell Park

Catering: Morning tea and lunch will be provided

NAATI Revalidation: 3.1.T&I Skills 40 points

RSVP: Tuesday 4th April 2017

Price: ASLIA members $100/Non-members $120

Payment: Cash or Direct Credit

ASLIA SA 105-032 Account: 059 348 540

Reference: YourNameAprilPD

Della Goswell is an interpreter, interpreter educator and researcher based in Sydney. She is a native signer, was accredited as a professional level Auslan-English interpreter in 1987, and has been training interpreters since 1990. Della is convenor of the Graduate Diploma in Auslan-English Interpreting at Macquarie University. She has a Masters in Adult Education, and in Translation & Interpreting, and is currently enrolled as a Linguistics PhD student at Macquarie University.