

Working with
Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander
peoples and cultures

with Beth Tailby & Sue Frank

Date: Sunday, 1st July 2018
Time: 9am – 1pm
Venue: BRISBANE DSQ Community Hall &
CAIRNS DSQ

Cost Attending: $70 for members and general Deaf community, $140 for non-members

Cost ASLIA Live: $56 for members and general Deaf community,
(Live stream) $112 for non-members

In time for NAIDOC Week, ASLIA Qld is offering this interactive workshop, that considers important factors when working with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples including:

- Acknowledging traditional owners
- Hidden histories of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island peoples
- Protocols and developing trust
- Generational trauma

Beth Tailby and Sue Frank discuss the diversity of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities and the interactions interpreters may encounter from a Queensland perspective.

Bookings: <https://www.trybooking.com/WNTV>

RSVP: Friday 29th June 2018

NAATI Points: 1.4 (10 points)

